OLD WORLD / NEW WORLD

- Old world wines are often named by region, steeped in tradition and terroir, and embody centuries of heritage and regional uniqueness.
- New world are often named by grape, showcasing distinct grape characteristics, and shaped by techniques learned from the Old World.

HELPFUL TERMS

- Wines labeled: MOSCATO, SEC, AMABILE, OFF DRY indicate wines with some level of residual sugar and pair with spicier dishes.
- Wines labeled BRUT are sparkling and dry (without noticeable sugar).
- Wines labeled TROCKEN are dry wines.
